For over 30 years David has integrated his finance experience into operational strategies and performance improvement. As a public company CFO, he effectively managed through strong controls and process, while gaining a significant amount of transaction experience; including having a strategic role in the sale of the business. He's a multidisciplinary CFO with a broad perspective, having held the CIO role and managed sales in a high growth business. David has played key roles in growing a business from $50 million in revenues to over $700 million. He enjoys understanding the fundamental value proposition of a business and partnering with the CEO and their team to develop and implement strategies to maximize it.
