Jamie Wetter is a results-driven Senior Director of Finance who specializes in optimizing people, processes, and technology to build high-performing accounting teams. She has led strategic initiatives that strengthen internal controls, elevate audit readiness, and modernize financial operations through process automation and system implementation. With a strong background in controllership and cross-functional collaboration, Jamie consistently delivers client solutions that enhance accuracy, efficiency, and transparency across each organization.

Jamie is passionate about developing and empowering teams to achieve operational excellence. Her leadership approach blends technical rigor with mentorship and collaboration—fostering an environment where people thrive, processes scale, and performance improves. Whether driving a system implementation or navigating complex financial challenges, Jamie ensures client alignment between finance strategy and business objectives to create lasting impact.
